This large executive bungalow in Gold Canyon Estates has a mountain view, large back yard, triple garage and room for plenty of parking. If you are looking for the ideal home with no steps on the main level from the front entry or through the garage all the way to the master bedroom shower, with wide hallways for anyone with mobility issues, this is the perfect home for you. There is an abundance of skylights that brighten the main floor and over-sized window wells in the basement bedrooms for plenty of light. There is an exterior surveillance system installed with monitor. In the garage there are three wall mounted garage door openers and plenty of room for a work bench or storage.
