Welcome to this character-filled bungalow situated on a spacious corner lot in a well-established neighbourhood. Perfectly located right across the street from an elementary school, this home offers both convenience and community—ideal for first-time buyers or young families. Inside, you’ll find two generously sized bedrooms and a practical layout that flows easily from the cozy living room—complete with a classic brick fireplace—to the dining area and into the kitchen. The home maintains its original charm while offering plenty of potential for modern updates. Step outside to a fully fenced, oversized yard—perfect for kids, pets, or future landscaping projects. A single detached garage accessed via the back lane provides added storage and off-street parking. This is a great opportunity to own a solid, well-located home with room to make it your own. Don’t miss out on this affordable entry into a desirable neighbourhood!
