A family friendly home nestled in Heritage Circle—one of the most family-friendly locations in West Lethbridge. This property offers convenience and community where the kids can easily walk to Mike Mountain Horse school, and Heritage Road Park is right outside your front door. Inside this 1520 sq. ft. bi-level, you’ll find a stunning kitchen renovation, setting the tone to this fine quality home, with four spacious bedrooms and three full bathrooms. A spacious primary retreat over the garage features a large walk-in closet and a luxurious ensuite. Laminate flooring and brand-new carpet in the bedrooms add to the list of upgrades. The basement offers a stylish family area and a dedicated theater zone—perfect for movie nights or entertaining, and a separate laundry room is just a bonus. Another standout features is the large boot room directly off the double garage, providing excellent functionality for large families to manage coats, shoes, back-packs and what have you. The backyard is a private retreat, professionally landscaped with gorgeous stonework, a cozy sitting area, a pergola and lush green grass. There’s plenty of enclosed storage space under the large rear deck and there’s a concrete pad ready for a future hot tub. All this located just moments from many west-side amenities including groceries, restaurants, banking and gas stations. With a fantastic floor plan, prime location and high-end finishes, your new home is move-in ready and available for immediate occupancy.
