Now is your opportunity to purchase a revenue generating property featuring three suites and a garage. The main floor and basement floor are long-term renters (13 and 9 years respectively) and would love to stay, while the third tenant has been in place for 18 months. Major updates include a roof replaced approximately 11 years ago, a high-efficiency furnace installed 12 years ago, and two hot water tanks replaced 7 years ago. This property offers a great opportunity for a first-time landlord or an investor looking to expand their portfolio. The upper and basement suites are non-approved, and each unit has its own separate entrance. Laundry is located in the basement and is shared between the main floor and basement tenants, while the upper tenant currently uses a laundromat.
