Welcome to this freshly updated bi-level in West Highlands! This home features 4 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, with brand new trim, paint, flooring, and a private fully landscaped backyard with a deck off the kitchen. The front yard has also been recently freshly landscaped with additional garden beds. The home also features central air, and the roof is just under 10 years old. This is a highly desirable neighborhood in west Lethbridge close to schools, shopping, restaurants, and quick access to Highway 3. This home is just over $400,000, and these types of homes have not been lasting long on the market. The alley access also provides potential for a detached garage, and sitting on a crescent minimizes public traffic providing a quiet location for either a solid investment property, a first time home buyer, or a great family home.
