Calling all visionaries! This 1962 bungalow is a canvas ready for someone who sees the mid-century charm waiting to shine. The main floor offers over 1,150 square feet with three bedrooms on the main, a 4-piece bath, and a bright living room anchored by a vaulted ceiling and brick fireplace — hardwood floors run throughout, ready for refinishing. In the well laid-out kitchen, the original wood cabinets could easily be refreshed as well! Downstairs, a fully finished basement adds a fourth bedroom (not egress), room for a kitchenette, a spacious family room, and a 3-piece bath/laundry combo. This home has both a side entry and rear entry off the deck — an easy win for investors or multi-generational living. Outside, a carport-converted garage covers off parking today, and the huge backyard leaves room for a future double detached garage. Walkable to various South Lethbridge amenities, this solid, well-built home deserves your TLC and a vision — but character like this is hard to find. Don't miss your chance to restore this mid-century bungalow to its former glory!
