This cozy home in the sought-after London Road area is full of potential for first-time buyers or investors. With classic character and key upgrades like a newer furnace and air conditioning, it offers great potential. The attic area could be utilized as primary retreat with a small ensuite, adding extra value and functionality. While the home needs some work, the possibilities are endless—whether as a rental or a personalized renovation project. Located minutes from downtown, parks, and schools, this is a fantastic opportunity to own in one of Lethbridge's most charming neighbourhoods!
